

Lokmat

Times

Published simultaneously from Aurangabad & Nagpur

LOKMAT TIMES AURANGABAD 6 OCTOBER 2004 3

Indus child labour school inaugurated

Indus Child Labour School was inaugurated at AMC hall, in Arif Colony, on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. Indus Child Labour School (transitional educational centre) was inaugurated by the director of Maharashtra Indus Project Patrick Martin, while assistant labour commissioner Arun Joshi presided over. Anand Khobragade, Ranjit Deshmukh, Meraj Siddique, Sanjay Karanjkar, Gautam Kadam, Mrs Shah Surraiya Khan and principal Sajid Pasha were present.

Welcome song was presented by school teacher Savita Ragade while the president of Azad Ali Shah Education Society gave the introduction of the society and the detailed information about Indus child labour project. Sajid spoke on the importance of the day and regarding equality of all religion and humanity which marked an impression on the parents, audience and guest.

Project director Martin had open conversation with the parents and the children regarding the Indus child labour project. Arun Joshi congratulated the working members of the society for their devotion in the field of education. The programme was compered by Chandrakant Awhard and Kalpana Bhagat, while vote of thanks was pro-

Indus Child Labour Project state director speaking at the inaugural ceremony of Child Labour School in Aurangabad.