

Lokmat

AURANGABAD

FRIDAY

OCTOBER 6, 2006

Times

Published simultaneously from Aurangabad &

City NGO distributes passbooks to child labourers

LOKMAT NEWS SERVICE

Aurangabad, Oct 5: Azad Ali Shah Education Society, an NGO working for the uplift of the children living in distress and specially for the child labourers in the city had recently conducted the pass book distribution programme at Aref Colony.

Twenty-three students of the Pragati Colony and 27 students of the Aref Colony were given passbooks with an amount ranging from Rs 1000 to Rs 1600. The passbooks were distributed depending upon their attendance in their respective schools for the past two years. Executive editor of the Al-Jazeera Urdu daily Sajjad Nawab Patel, the city president of the Bahujan Kranti Dal Aref Illahi, corporator Naser Nahdi Chauş, chairperson of the society Surraiya Khan and administrative officer Sajid Pasha were present on the occasion, according to a press release.